COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, the initial right to use City property for the sale of alcohol was set to expire on October 31, 2020, but the Governing Body later adopted Ordinance No. 2020-28, which extended the permitted sales through October 31, 2021, in line with the State's known timeline; and

WHEREAS, the Governing Body also amended its ordinance to allow sales of alcohol on land that is leased for fewer than six months, in addition to land leased for longer than six months, with the goal that restaurants interested in continuing outdoor dining would negotiate leases with the City for either short-term, seasonal, or long-term use of the City's property;

WHEREAS, on October 26, 2021, RLD/ABC extended the expiration date of its temporary increased license program by six months, ending April 31, 2022; and

WHEREAS, as of October 26, 2021, no leases have been negotiated to replace the short-term permits, but restaurants desire to continue their use of city property and to continue alcohol service; and

WHEREAS, Section 23-6.1(E)(5) states that its term may be extended either by the adoption of an ordinance or a resolution; and

WHEREAS, the continued demand for social distancing and outdoor seating, and the unpredictability of the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on daily life, necessitates the extension of the permitted use of City sidewalks, streets, rights-of-way, or other specified property for the sale and consumption of alcohol.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF SANTA FE that the expiration date for the use of City sidewalks, streets, rights-of-way, or other specified property as specified in Section 23-6.1(E) SFCC 1987 is hereby extended to allow negotiation of leases and shall expire when the RLD/ABC Division ceases to permit the use of a temporary change/expansion of liquor license premises for the sale and consumption of
