To the Mayor and Governing Body of Santa Fe, New Mexico

Dear Sirs and Madams:

St. John's College will hold a Gala Benefit Dinner to culminate its year-long celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Santa Fe campus on Friday evening, June 26, 2015. Our guest speaker for the evening will be author, commentator and New York Times columnist David Brooks. We also appreciate that Mayor Gonzales and Councilors Ives and Maestas have agreed to serve on our Honorary Host Committee and will be attending the event.

This event will take place on the grounds of St. John's College. We will begin the evening with a reception from 5:00pm to 6:15pm in a tent that will be located on the southeast corner of our soccer field. During the reception, we will be serving wine, beer and champagne. The dinner will be held inside our Student Activities Center and begin at 6:30pm. We will be serving wine and champagne at dinner. We anticipate that the evening will end by 10:00pm. Catering for this event will be provided by Walter Burke Catering Inc. We will be purchasing the wine, beer and champagne from Kelly Liquor Barn.

The cost for the dinner is $250 per person; the cost for the dinner plus the reception is $500 per person. Proceeds from this event will support scholarships for New Mexico students who attend St. John's College Santa Fe.

With its exceptional faculty, community programs, and over 1,200 alumni living in New Mexico, the College's educational, cultural, and intellectual impact is integral to the character and history of our state. We are proud of our contribution to the wellbeing of our community and grateful for the support and encouragement we continue to receive from the City of Santa Fe.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Michael P. Peters
President
