

1 systems charge half the fare for transit fare options; and

2       WHEREAS, the current fare structure encourages regular passengers to purchase passes that 3 progressively reduce per trip costs with the duration of the pass with two fixed-route pass options – 4 daily pass for $2.00 and a 31-day pass for $20.00; and

5       WHEREAS, an annual or semi-annual pass option is not currently included in the approved 6 fare structure, however, the non-profit entity Chainbreakers and regular transit users alike, have 7 advocated for the addition of a progressively priced annual pass; and

8       WHEREAS, the City of Santa Fe has a long history of providing grant funding to many 9 local social service agencies who work with, and address the needs of, indigent members of our 10 community through the services and programs delivered by such organizations; and

11       WHEREAS, one need often cited by the indigent clients of such non-profit organizations is 12 that of transportation that provides access to the goods and services necessary for their care and 13 maintenance; and

14       WHEREAS, the City of Santa Fe desires to partner with local social service agencies in 15 formally establishing a discount bus pass program to address the transportation needs of their indigent 16 clients; and

17       WHEREAS, the City of Santa Fe Transit Advisory Board fully supports and has endorsed a 18 discount bus pass program and the addition of an annual pass option and encourages the Governing 19 Body to authorize such initiatives.

20       NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE 21 CITY OF SANTA FE that the Governing Body hereby:

22       1.       Directs staff to amend the fare structure for the City of Santa Fe’s transit system to 23 include a $200 annual pass option and a $110 semi-annual pass option, while maintaining the 24 remainder of the fare structure currently in effect.

25       2.       Directs staff to provide notice of the Bus Pass Partnership Program to all social

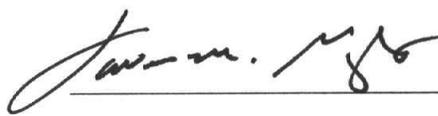

1 service organization grantees.

2 3. Directs staff to promote the program through advertising in local media sources.

3 4. Directs staff to place copies of a promotional flyer in display racks at the Transit
4 Division front office.

5 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the impacts resulting from the adoption of this 6 resolution shall be reviewed by the Governing Body one year from the date of adoption of this 7 resolution.
