

Advanced Metering Infrastructure System and Related Installation and Implementation Services

RFP 14/14/P

December 9, 2013

Addendum No. 1 – Addition of second, non- mandatory Pre Proposal Conference:

On December 5, 2013, during the scheduled Pre Proposal Conference, a technicality occurred related to the ability to log into the conference. Therefore, a second conference is scheduled utilizing the information below. If you attended the first meeting you will not need to attend the second meeting, however you will be required to acknowledge that you received the second addenda during the submittal process. This will be a call in conference only. There is no location scheduled for this conference.

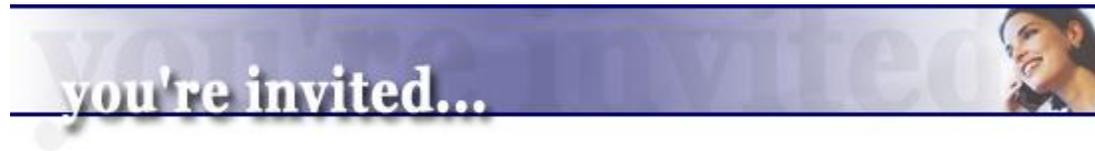

All other terms and conditions as posted on the Request for Proposal are in effect.
