6. Old Business

- a. Subcommittee Updates

• Education

Had the pleasure to meet Dr. James D. Lujan the Associate Superintendent for Teaching & Learning with SFPS. He was born in Albuquerque and raised in Juarez, Mexico. He discussed some of his personal and professional experiences highlighting those related to the work of our committee.

Report: There was a positive outcome from the meeting with SFPS Superintendent which resulted in Dr. Lujan becoming the Committee Liaison between SFPS and Immigration Committee. They discussed the success of the Immigration 101 presentations to SFP to about 1,200 people. They are working on a forum with the SFPS Superintendent and immigrant families. The hope is to have a meeting with SFPS Superintendent and Education Committee every 3 months.

• Welcoming Communities

Discussed the 2 forums regarding the citizenship program. 46 people have signed up to date. The application process takes up to 3 months. There will be another session on December 5th at 5:30 pm here in Santa Fe.
