In past years the tournament has been held at the Santa Fe Downs and at the soccer complex in Bernalillo. The tournament has drawn hundreds of players and spectators from around the state and from neighboring states. Alcohol sales at past tournaments has not resulted in any issues and has been strictly regulated. The tournament organizers hope to grow the event to show that an upgraded soccer complex in the City would attract teams from across the state and the greater Southwest region. Sales of beer would have to comply with all regulations set out in 23-6.3 SFCC 1987.
