RONALD S.

TRUJILLO
MAYOR

THE CHANGE SANTA FE NEEDS
THE VOICE SANTA FE DESERVES

APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONERS OF SANTA FE COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, FOR THE 2000 ELECTION.

My online posts in response to Santa Fe New Mexican article titled Complaint quickly dropped in no-fuss mayor's race dated 23 Feb 2018.

Stefanie Beninato

My response was related to the article. It had to do with campaign violations for posting signs on public property--something Ron should know about

Stefanie Beninato

Trujillo or his supporters are putting signs in the public rights of way behind commercial spaces such as Sage Inn and McDonalds on St Francis Dr. I think you have to have the owner of the adjacent property's permission to use that right of way. It would seem odd that either of those businesses would support any one candidate—they never have before. And I am pretty sure that candidates cannot use public land—that is right of way for their campaign signs. But if the red Hummer with the Trujillo signs can go the wrong way down Sheridan St on a Wednesday evening, then maybe he and his supporters feel they are above the law.

Stefanie - why are you directing such anger and vitriol toward Ron Trujillo?

From my perspective, the approach and hostility you're showing weakens any argument you may have and tells me, at least, that you have some type of vendetta or alternate agenda going on.

I'm actually impressed that he talks things out with his opponent and settled the issue so amicably. I would think that as a mediator, you'd appreciate that.

But instead, you launched into attack mode against him for something completely unrelated to the article.

You can still see these comments online +
you can see that I posted 23 + 24 Feb
I called Ron re: sign behind Sage Inn because it had been bent over. After these online posts, the two commercial locations were signs in the removed.
The Old SFE Trail sign is still there.
