6. Action Items

- a. Request for approval of Spring 2020 Community Gallery exhibit theme, "Play Things"
Mr. Lambert provided information on the Play/Things: The Role of Toys in Creativity.
"You can discover more about a person in an hour of play than a year of conversation."
Plato

Play/Things is an exhibit centered on toys as cultural references and gateways to childhood creativity. Participating artists will be challenged to create artworks inspired by the iconic memories of toys from their childhoods.

Artists will be asked to consider:

- What is the role of toys in creativity and imagination?
- How are gender roles designated and/or reinforced through toys and play?
- What are artists' fondest toy images from their childhoods and what did they learn from them?
- Does digital play ignite creativity in a different way?

Possible partners include: Santa Fe Children's Museum and International Folk Art Museum.

Ms. Peer said that partners could also be parents who are artists in the community, possibly SITE Santa Fe. Mr. Lenihan and Mr. Chase Daniel will send Rod a few names and ideas mentioned at this meeting. The Folk Art Museum is also a good connector.

Youth Art Shows opens February 1, 2019, Silk – which is object art, Happy Clouds which are skylscapes of NM during the summer and will be a nice tourist one, and in the fall we will have Zozobra sponsored by Kiwanis, Longer Table in the fall, another Art Youth Show and jury select in February 2020 and Play/Things will follow March, April and May 2020.

Ms. Peer moved to approve the Play/Things: The Role of Toys in Creativity, second by Mr. Chase Daniel, motion carried by unanimous voice vote.

7. Discussion Items

a. Discussions of Next Steps

The Chair reiterated working on names to fill the positions that are vacant on the AIPP.

Ms. Camborde said that possibly in the Spring it would be a good time to do an inventory of all public art and asked the commission to assist with this project. It is not a vast collection, but the space is vast where it is. The Chair said he would like to know more of what exists. If we did this on an annual or bi-annual basis it makes us more aware of condition and needs.

Ms. Camborde said before next meeting location options for the Tele Poem Exhibit should be reviewed. The two locations being considered will be sent to the committee members for their consideration and also, if there are new suggested locations send to Ms. Camborde.

Ms. Debra Garcia y Griego is now the Cabinet Secretary of Cultural Affairs. Mr. Randall is Acting Director and working with the Mayor on a replacement.

The Chair expressed his appreciation for keeping things going forward. Thank you.

8. Adjourn

There being no further business to come before the Art in Public Places Committee, the Chair called for adjournment at 6:10 pm.
