Welcome to our very first newsletter! We will be sending this out regularly for you to read about topics going on throughout Parks & Recreation. Information will be provided regarding special events, promotions, classes, leagues, competitions, etc. We kicked off the holiday season with our Annual Holiday Tree Lighting Ceremony on the Plaza, which was a great success! Children stood patiently waiting to greet Santa and Mrs. Claus. Live entertainment with holiday cheer was held throughout the evening until the countdown to the Tree Lighting Ceremony lit up the Plaza in beautiful splendor. Check out the upcoming events going on in the next month and stay tuned for more information coming in February 2018. Have a safe and happy holiday season!

Fort Marcy Complex will be hosting a Free Throw Competition on Saturday December 30th, 2017. The competition will be for boys and girls ages 8-15. There will be 4 age category groups for 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, and 14-15. Registration is $10 per participant and starts on Monday December 4th at Ft. Marcy. Awards will be given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in each bracket category for boys and girls. 15 free throws total with 3 warm up shots. For more information please contact Greg Fernandez at 505-955-2509 or grfernandez@ci.santa-fe.nm.us.

“May your holiday be as bright as your spirits are light.”

HOLIDAY ICE SKATING SHOW

The Santa Fe Skating Club’s 2017 Show, Around the World in 80 Minutes, will take place at the Genoveva Chavez Community Center, 3221 Rodeo Road, on Saturday, December 2 at 4:00pm and Sunday, December 3 at 1:00pm. The show will feature almost 60 local skaters of all ages and skating abilities, including 30 skaters who are in the Santa Fe Skating Club’s Learn to Skate program.

The Club is thrilled to announce that senior men’s skater, Luke Kirchgessner, will be this year’s guest star. Luke is a regionally-ranked skater from Albuquerque.

Tickets are available through the Club’s website, www.santafeskatingclub.org, and will be available at the door.

Prices are $12 for ages 12 and up; $7 for ages 2 to 11; and free for those under 2 years old.

Press is welcome at the dress rehearsal on Saturday, December 2 at 10:00am – 12:00pm at the Genoveva Chavez Community Center.

Gift of Giving

Holiday Drive

In the spirit of giving, Marty Sanchez Links de Santa Fe will be partnering with the New Mexico Department of Children Youth & Families (CYFD) for a holiday drive benefiting the local families and children of Santa Fe County.

During this time, it is our hope that we can help brighten spirits for those who have had a difficult time this year, specifically children being placed in foster care due to circumstances not their own.

We will be collecting toys & clothing items for boys & girls/teenagers ages 1-18.

DEADLINE

Wednesday, December 13th

Please wrap & label each gift, noting boy/age or girl/age & bring to the pro shop.

Gifts will be delivered on time for CYFD's Annual Christmas Party on Friday, December 15th
