RELEASE OF LIABILITY

I, or we, as the legal parent(s) or guardian(s), of the registered child do hereby agree to release, hold harmless and forever give up any claim against the City of Santa Fe that may arise in the future for damage on account of bodily injury or property damage in any manner out of participation in the Summer Youth Program. Below are the rules, regulations and policies pertaining to the City's Summer Youth Program. By signing the Parental Agreement, you have acknowledged that you fully understand the conditions of the program and the potential actions that the program administrators can take should there be any violations of the rules and policies either on your behalf or on the behalf of the child.

PARENTAL AGREEMENT

1. Operating hours are 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. For liability reasons, parents can not drop off children prior to 7:30 a.m. Equally important, parents MUST pick up children no later than 5:30 p.m. The City of Santa Fe may drop your child from the program should this condition be violated. A warning will be issued immediately upon the first violation. A 3-day suspension will be issued should a second violation occur. Termination of the child participant will occur in the event of a third violation.
2. If anyone other than the parents will be picking up your child, you must provide the City with a written authorization and the name of the individual(s).
3. Children will not be allowed to leave the site on their own. For children who do leave the site, staff has been directed to immediately advise the parents. Children will be subject to suspension or expulsion from the program should they leave the program without formal authorization from parents or legal guardians.
4. Parents will be required to sign a permission slip when their child is going on field trips or to watch movies or videos.
5. The City of Santa Fe will not be responsible for the theft or damage to personal equipment such as cell phones or toys brought to the program site by children.
6. Staff will be maintaining an incident log on those children who fail to comply with the program rules and regulations, especially in cases where the safety and well being of other children is at risk. Parents will be notified whose children do not adhere to the rules and regulations and can or will be suspended or expelled from the program, depending on the severity of the incident.
7. Children will be responsible for the care and use of the program equipment. Children who abuse or damage the equipment or school property will be subject to suspension or expulsion from the program and any damages will be assessed to the parents.
8. Parents must notify the site supervisor if their child will not be attending in order to be excused. Children with three (3) unexcused absences will be dropped from the program and that slot will be immediately filled with a child from the waiting list.
9. If your child becomes ill at home (e.g., with a cold or flu), that can infect other children. Do not bring the child to the program site. Parents will be notified to take their child home should the child arrive ill or become ill during the program.
10. Program staff are prohibited from administering any medications to children. This is solely the responsibility of parents.
11. Parents should communicate and introduce themselves to the staff of their children's program site.
12. Telephones will be available at each site. Be sure to ask the site supervisor for the direct number. Parents are to call the site only in cases of emergency or to notify the supervisor of an absence.
13. On special event days, i.e., field trips, children must arrive several minutes prior to departure in order to participate. Information will be successfully provided to parents in advance by the site supervisors.
14. Photographs, video and/or general information may be published in, or used by, any of the media or mass communication (including newspaper, magazines, television, pamphlets, etc.).
15. All parents must provide their signature acknowledging the Rules and Regulations of the Summer Program prior to or at the time of registration.
16. Children must be potty trained and able to care for all restroom needs. If unable to do so, we will not register your child due to staff ratios and special attention needs. If this is determined during the 8 week program, the youth participant will be dismissed from the program due to safety and health issues.
17. Parents who disrespect program staff or rules and regulations will have their child dis-enrolled from the Summer Youth Program.
